The ZMCB – A Brief History

Zanesville flourished with performing arts activities in the late 1800s, and the John Bauer Band was among them. The band was organized before 1880 and averaged 15 to 20 members. When the band leader died in 1912, his ensemble was taken over by the American Rolling Mills Company, and became known as the Armco Band.

The 7th Regiment Band was formed in 1900, conducted by Bruce Tomlinson. Four years later, band members began federal service in advent of war.

The 7th Regiment and Armco bands held their concerts locally, in McIntire Park and Putnam Park. By 1923, the two bands had merged, taking the present day name of Zanesville Memorial Concert Band.

Today, funds for the concerts are raised by individual and corporate contributions. An endowment fund has also been established for anyone wishing to make a donation towards the ZMCB.

The band's current home is Zane's Landing Park, along the eastern banks of the Muskingum River in downtown Zanesville. Concerts are performed on five Sunday evenings through the summer.

Concerts remain free to the public, thanks to the generosity of our supporters.

Meet Our Conductors

Sunday, June 2, 2013 / Zane's Landing Park

Jeffrey L. Roquemore

Artistic Director

Jeff retired from Zanesville High School after serving 16 years as band director and music department coordinator from 1988-2004. Previously, Jeff held band director positions at Philo High School, Hamlin (W.Va.) High School, Fort Frye High School, and, most recently, Custer County High School in Westcliffe, Colo. Jeff earned a Bachelor's Degree from Ohio University in 1974, a Master's Degree in Music Education from Marshall University in 1981, and a Master's Degree in Public School Administration from Ohio University in 1992. He has served the Ohio Music Education Association (OMEA) as district secretary-treasurer, president-elect, and president. Jeff was also director of the Muskingum College Spirit Band from 2004-06. He also plays flute and piccolo for the band.

Janine Schmelzer Bock

Assistant Conductor

Mrs. Schmelzer Bock is a native of Bremen, Ohio, and received her Bachelor of Music Education and Master of the Arts degrees from Ohio State University. As a member of the Ohio State University Marching Band, she became the first woman to dot the "i" in the famed "Script Ohio" marching maneuver in a single-script at a home football game in Ohio Stadium. Schmelzer Bock also has been a member of the 122nd Army Band / Army National Guard, stationed at Beitler Armory in Worthington. When not wielding the baton in front of the ZMCB, you will find her playing tuba for the band.

Tony Thorngate

Guest Conductor / 2013 ZMCB Honors Band

Tony is the director of instrumental and choral ensembles for Crooksville Schools, where he has conducted 6-12 choral ensembles, 5-12 concert bands, jazz band, pep band, and marching band, and has taught all general music studies. During his 12 years with Crooksville, Tony has completely rebuilt the music program, has restored a proud tradition of excellence, and has returned his ensembles to adjudicated performances. He has served as an adjunct professor for Muskingum College, conducting all athletic bands for two years. He has played trumpet with the Muskingum Valley Symphonic Winds, provided private instruction to area students, and is also a member of the Ohio Music Educators Association and Music Educators National Conference. Tony has served as a guest conductor for the Muskingum

Valley Symphonic Winds and the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra, and has conducted a collaborative performance for the Ohio School Board Association. Mr. Thorngate was honored in 2012 as an outstanding area educator by the Muskingum Valley Educational Service Center. Originally from Quaker City, Mr. Thorngate earned his Bachelor of Music Education Degree from Muskingum College in 2001, his Master of Education Degree from Muskingum University in 2011, and his Master of Educational Leadership Degree from Muskingum University in 2013. In addition to his teaching duties, Mr. Thorngate also manages a large federal grant program for high school students and regularly serves as a building administrator. He makes his home in Norwich, with his wife, Christina, and children, Alyson and Alexander.
