Zanesville Native David Schubach arranged the Wattsonian March which we are performing this evening. David is based both in Los Angeles and Ohio. His original musical compositions have been performed by symphonic orchestras, jazz bands, and solo artists. Last season Schubach was the musical director and producer for a gala featuring pop stars Michele Phillips (Mammas & The Papas) and Maria Conchita Alonso. Jazz vocalist Tierney Sutton recently recorded Schubach's song Tell Me Now It's Christmas. This summer his musical arrangements are being featured by the Lake String Quartet at the Garand Lodge of Yellowstone National Park. In Columbus, Ohio he is often the featured pianist with the Brunetto Big Band. His TV fact-based movie The Lee Donoho Story was optioned for production. Next season the Zanesville Community theatre will produce Schubach's drama Back Words.
