Program notes on “The Lake” by Dr. Schlacks. Edited by Fred Smith

The Lake is a six-movement, mostly tonal, programmatic work (today we will play the fourth and sixth movements) about the visual sensations that arise by looking at a large lake sited in a state park. Composed in the fall of 2004, the fourth movement (binary) portrays rather dilapidated cabin near the water's edge, using a rather sterile chord succession. However, as the viewer thinks beyond the decrepit external appearance, and begins to imagine the cabin in better days, the music turns to that of romance with thoughts of the cozy interior whose fireplace casts a wonderful glow upon the young couple who are so fortunate as to live on the shore of this beautiful lake. The sixth movement has our lake watcher reluctantly packing up to return to the work-a-day world. But before leaving, takes one last look at the lake and marvels at how the majesty, the mystery, and the pure joy that this day and this lake has graced his life. To the state of Ohio, I say thank you for preserving this beauty known as Salt Fork Lake and the forests surrounding it for all of us to take time to slow down and reflect on the glorious beauty of nature.
